

The Harvard Berlin Dialogues Presents

---

WAGING PEACE

Time:

Monday, Oct. 15, 2007
18:00-20:00
(reception begins at 17.30)

Location:

Wissenschaftszentrum
Berlin für Sozialforschung
Reichpietschufer 50
10785 Berlin

Topic:

The session focuses on peacekeeping as a reliable method of securing long-term stability, and nation-building as the partner of peacekeeping.

Chair:

Thorsten Benner, Associate Director, GPPI, Berlin

Speakers:

Prof. Mentor Agani, Lecturer in Sociology and Political Science, University of Pristina, where he teaches on theories of nation and nationalism and global Transformations; former deputy director of the Kosovar Civil Society

Prof. David Little, T.J. Dermot Dumphy Professor of the Practice in Religion, Ethnicity, and International Conflict, Harvard Divinity School

Lt. General Karlheinz Viereck, Commander, Bundeswehr Operations Command, Potsdam; head of peacekeeping mission in the Congo

To register, please email ces-ber@fas.harvard.edu

In Cooperation with: Harvard Center for European Studies • Gemeinnützige Hertie Stiftung
Hertie School of Governance Berlin • Wissenschaftszentrum Berlin für Sozialforschung

c/o HERTIE SCHOOL OF GOVERNANCE | SCHLOSSPLATZ 1 | 10178 BERLIN
TEL +49-30-212 312 138 | FAX +49-30-212 312 999 | www.ces-berlin.fas.harvard.edu