

European Foreign and Security Policy Studies

Autumn Seminar 2008

ST.MALO 10 YEARS ON:
TAKING STOCK OF THE EU AS AN INTERNATIONAL PLAYER

9-11 October
Renaissance Hotel
Rue du Parnasse, 19,
1050 Brussels

DRAFT PROGRAMME

In collaboration with

Thursday, 9 October 2008

Arrival of participants

14.30-15.00 Registration and Welcome coffee

15.00-15.15 Official opening of the Seminar

15.15-17.15 Plenary session: Ten years of European defence

Chair Sven Biscop, Egmont-Royal Institute for international relations
(TBC)

Panel

- ❖ Gilles Andreani, Paris II Pantheon-Assas
- ❖ Michael Clarke, Royal United Services Institute
- ❖ Stefano Silvestri, Istituto Affari Internazionali

17.15 -17.30 COFFEE BREAK

17.30 -19.30 Plenary session: Transatlantic relations after Bush

Chair Antonio Missiroli, European Policy Centre

Panel

- ❖ Pierre Hassner, Centre d'Etudes et de Recherches Internationales
- ❖ Volker Perthes, Stiftung Wissenschaft und Politik
- ❖ Jamie Shea, North Atlantic Treaty Organization

19.30 -21.30 DINNER

Key note speech by Jacek Saryusz-Wolski, European Parliament

Friday, 10 October 2008

Parallel working groups (See separate document for detailed agendas)
9.00 - 11.00	I. The EU "box": Concepts, tools and realities of crisis management and conflict resolution, 1 st part	II. Cross-pillarisation? The external dimension of EU JHA policies and its implications for ESDP and CFSP, 1 st part	III. Inside out and outside in: perspective on the European Neighbourhood Policy, 1 st part
11.00 - 13.00	IV. The EU "box": Concepts, tools and realities of crisis management and conflict resolution, 2 nd Part	V. Cross-pillarisation? The external dimension of EU JHA policies and its implications for ESDP and CFSP, 2 nd part	VI. Inside out and outside in: perspective on the European Neighbourhood Policy, 2 nd part

13.00 - 14.00 LUNCH

Parallel working groups (See separate document for detailed agendas)
14.00 - 16.00	VII. No Nukes? The EU and non-Proliferation: issues, challenges, effectiveness	VIII. Conventional and unconventional policy tools, 1 st part	IX. The world as a mirror: identity, legitimacy and representation of European foreign policy

16.00 -16-30 COFFEE BREAK

16.30 -18-30 Plenary session: Revisiting the European Security Strategy

Chair Christer Jonsson, University of Lund

Panel

- ❖ Michael Doczy, Council of the European Union
- ❖ Fernando Andresen-Guimaraes, European Commission
- ❖ Robin Niblett, Chatham House

19.30 -21.30 DINNER

Key note speech by Tommaso Padoa Schioppa, Notre Europe
Introduced by Mathias Jopp, Institut für Europäische Politik

Saturday 11 October 2008

Parallel working groups (See separate document for detailed agendas)
9.00 - 11.00	X. May the force be with EU: consensus, aims and strategies	XI. Working with others: multilateralism, transatlantic relations and partnerships
10.00- 13.00	BOOK Project: The politics of European security policies
11.00 - 13.00	XII. Europeanisation and CFSP/ESDP-a two way street?	XIII. The sky is not the limit. Space as the new frontier of the ESDP

13.00 -14.00 LUNCH

14.00 -15.00 Debriefing/feedback session

15.00 -17.00 Plenary session: EU Foreign Policy - with or without Lisbon

Chair Gianni Bonvicini, Istituto Affari Internazionali

Panel

- ❖ Claus Grube, Permanent representation of Denmark to the EU
- ❖ Myriam Sochacki, European Commission
- ❖ Gijs de Vries, Clingendael

17.00 -17.30 COFFEE BREAK

17.30 –19.30 Anna Lindh Award Ceremony

Chair Tommaso Padoa Schioppa, Notre Europe

Laudatio by Lord William Wallace, London School of Economics, at the presence of representatives of the three foundations

Lecture by Dr. Nathalie Tocci, Istituto Affari Internazionali, receiving the 2008 Anna Lindh Award
Between research, policy and politics: in praise of independence

19.30- 19.45 Official closing by a representative of Riksbankens Jubileumsfond

19.45- 20.45 Cocktail